Dear Borchardt

Sir Eldon Gorst has gone into the matter with the Costen-tieu and it appears that to put Quibell to superintend is the only solution. To prevent him (Lorington) carrying out his permission would cause a lawsuit in the Mixed Courts against Government, who would certainly lose it.

All the American Consul General would protest certainly.

Yours sincerely

Gy. H. G. Lyons.
