

Sieglin Expedition.
Work at Abasir. March 1910

Division of objects found.

The Cairo Museum takes the following objects: —

Two vertical alabaster vases 65, 37.

Two diorite bowls. 96, 56

One alabaster bowl. 108

Two slate bowls. 59, 58

One porphyry vase. with 2 handles.

Samples of pottery.

The Sieglin Expedition takes the remainder: 403 —

4 good vertical alabaster vases, ca 40 poor

1 good diorite bowl, 3 fair

4 alabaster bowls.

5 slate bowls.

1 quartz bowl.

1 porphyry bowl.

1 oval alabaster dish, incomplete

1 bronze mirror

1 flint knife (ordinary, early Dynastic shape)

Pottery beads, fragments of glass, a considerable quantity of fragments of stone vases.

G Steindorff

J. Quibell

16 March 1910